

ENDLESS OPPORTUNITIES

i failed to please you, it's not nice to tease you i failed to make you what you wanna be i failed to walk with you, and i failed to talk with you i failed to give you everything you want from me

You're way too slow, and i gave you every opportunity
i run this show, and i gave you every opportunity
i told you to go, and i gave you every opportunity
i told you so i tried to tell you, so what am i to do?

How is it you don't hear a word i say to you?
When will you get it?
When will you give it up?
Ten thousand phone calls that i never return to you

You're way too slow, and i gave you every opportunity
i told you so

So glad to miss you It's not nice to kiss you Look through my window for my shiny ray of sun

i told you to go
So glad to make it on my own
And i gave you every opportunity

i gave you everything i should
And i gave you everything i could And i gave you capable to give Momma's baby's gonna be let down Cause i'm never gonna be around Stay away from my front door, back door

i told you to go
So glad to make it on my on my own
And i gave you every opportunity.
