

FEEL MUCH BETTER

i'll take a week to wallow with the shit i have to swallow i'll take a million problems, put the pile beneath my pillow i'll take a good thing and i'll close my eyes and disbelieve it's all my own.

i'll take on lover's spat and see it as the end of loving i'll take a stranger's glance and see it as their hatred brewing i'll take a lifetime not to let you see the pain i'm feeling on my own.

i tell ya,
Don't do what i do!
Don't do what i do and i know that you will feel much better
Don't do what i do!
Don't do what i do and i know that you will feel much better...ahhh

i'll waste a night of sleep in anger for another's doing i'll wait a week to eat to show you this is how i'm feeling i'll wipe my smile off just because there's not a message waiting on my phone.

i tell ya,
Don't do what i do!
Don't do what i do and i know that you will feel much better
Don't do what i do!
Don't do what i do and i know that you will feel much better...ahhh

All day long... i'll sit and think about the ways that i could just get even
All day long...
i'll just complain about my life and how it's short of heaven
Maybe you'll get it so i know that you will feel much better
Maybe you'll work it so i know that you will feel much better
Don't do what i do and i know that you will feel much better ...ahhhh

Don't do what i do!
Don't do what i do and i know that you will feel much better
Don't do what i do!
Don't do what i do and i know that you will feel much better

Always live with decision
Always live with decision of your time

It's your time.
