

FORGIVENESS

If you could look into my mind
You'd see that i feel so unkind
i only see the best of you with all of me

So if you look into my eyes (i beg you for forgiveness)
You'd see that i feel so unkind (i beg you for forgiveness)
Everything you do is so very much unselfish
You're like a goddess with the things you'll do for love
Ah...for love

i couldn't be more happy to feel forgiveness

So take a look into my eyes
You'll see that i feel so unkind
You have the grace of a thousand angels
When you tell me it's ok to feel the way i feel Ah...the way i feel

i couldn't be more happy to feel forgiveness

Time to think it over...time to think it over...time to think it over
i beg you for forgiveness
Time to think it over...time to think it over...time to think it over
It's your sweetness i adore

So if you look into my mind (i beg you for forgiveness)
You'll see that i feel so unkind (i beg you for forgiveness)
And if a tear falls from my eye (i beg you for forgiveness)
i beg you for forgiveness
